WANT JAPANESE EXCLUDED.

Vancouver Parliament Members Fear Clash of the Races. Victoria, British Columbia, Jan. 22,-The Parliament of British Columbia took up the Japanese question last night. Representative MacCowan declared that the situation was serious at Vancouver, and that if the aggression continued, it was possible that resort to arms might be necessary for self-preservation. He said that the Japanese of Vancouver were strongly armed, and if steps were not zens would arm themselves.

Dr. McGuire, of Vancouver, suggested that armored cruisers should be provided patrol the Pacific seaboard of Canada, and that urgent steps should be taken, whether Japan opposed or not, to exclude the Japanese. NOMINATED BY GOV. FORT.

Appointments for Most Important

Judicial Positions Are Made. Trenton, N. J., Jan. 22.-Gov. Fort sent nis first nominations to the senate to-day. They included all of the more important judicial appointments he will have to make during the first year of his term, and caused a shake-up in several of the State departments. Justice Mahlon Pitney, of Morristown, was named as chancellor of New Jersey, succeeding Chancellor William J. Magie, whose term expired last week. This is the highest judicial position in the State,
